It's time for the 2018 Garden Globe Awards! We've compiled a list of the top selling plants of the year in each category: deciduous tree, evergreen tree, perennial, grass, groundcover, shade shrub, sun shrub, and vine. Each plant listed here does very well in the Sonora area and, for good reason, was purchased over and over by both landscapers and homeowners in 2018. If you're not sure where to start with your landscape project, you might consider some of the plants listed here... You can't go wrong with the most popular plants of the year!
